At Watertown we specialise in breeding tumpuli lanudas, the cuddly teddy bears amongst llamas, smaller and woollier than classic ccaras. To that end we imported bloodlines from Italy and Switzerland to integrate with our foundation stock of Roselands. Above all though, we like to breed and sell contented lovable llamas!

The Directory is a forum for members to advertise their services and interests to other members. It is issued both in printed form and on the Society website, where it is open to everyone. All entrants in the BREEDERS section have signed up to the British Llama Society Sales Code of Conduct. All entries in the TREKKING section have signed up to the British Llama Society Trekking Code of Conduct. However the British Llama Society does not accept any responsibility or liability for any entries. If you would like to add your entry to the Directory this can appear on the website immediately, however the printed version will not be revised until Spring 2012. Details and costs are available from Jane Brown on 01608 661893 or membership@BritishLlamaSociety.org. A basic entry (name, address and telephone numbers) is FREE.
